This book is dedicated to the ongoing spirit of '76.
It is this spirit that we,
the class of 1976, are proud to support as we graduate in this bicentennial year.

Our class is also proud of being the fiftieth graduating class of Mercyhurst Preparatory School.

Just as each succeeding generation of pioneers contributed to the development of this nation

so each graduating class contributes its uniqueness to the development of a better tomorrow.
As our school celebrates its Golden Anniversary, we look back over the golden memories we cherish.

Memories

light the corners of my mind,

Misty water color

memories of the Way We Were.

Scattered pictures of the smiles
we left behind,

Smiles we gave to one another oh, the Way We Were

Can it be that it was all so simple then

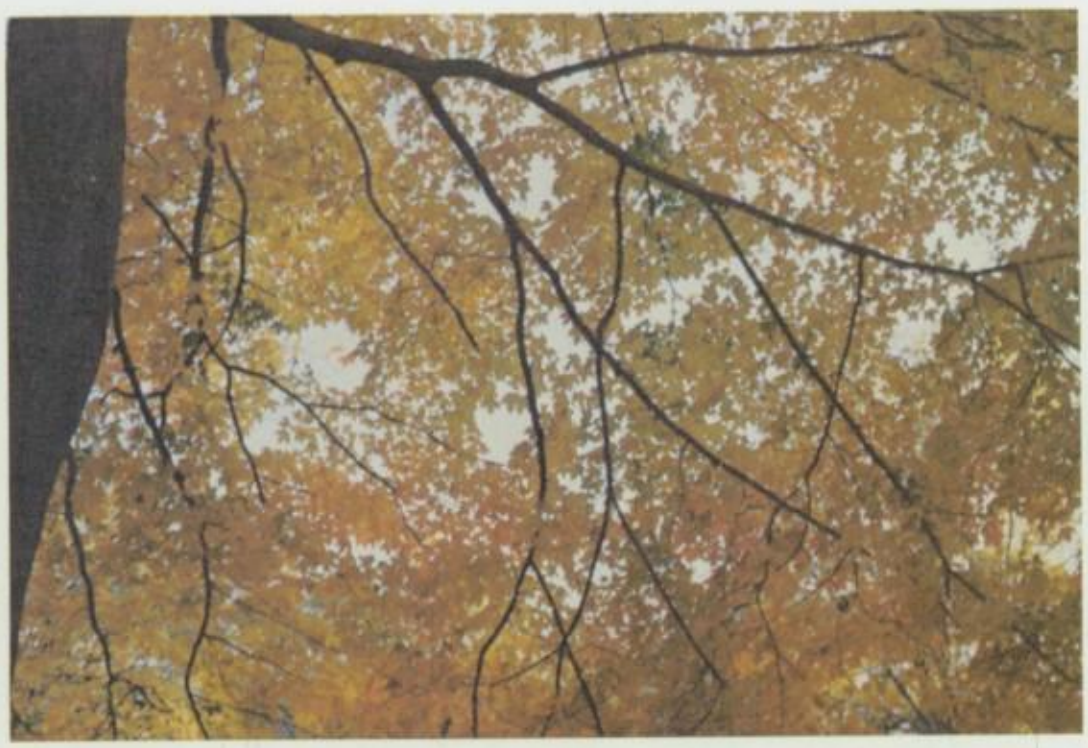
or has time

rewritten every line.

If we had the chance to do it all again,



Tell me,

Would we,

Could we?

May each year find us stronger, surer, wiser from the start.
Better in every way and yet,
still young-at-heart.

Dorothy Andrews

Very early in September of nineteen seventy-two,
As 104 green freshmen, we started our life anew.
At first we were bewildered and a little ill at ease,
But everyday we did our best to earn those A's and B's.
New subjects didn't bother us-we took them all in stride,
Typing, English, History we passed them all with pride.
In Algebra we looked for "y" but often we found "x",
No wonder sister wasn't pleased and tried to ring our necks.
We had volleyball and tennis and "mixers" in the fall,
Proms and parties in the springtime seemed to shorten the long haul.
Now June has come so quickly-the time has passed so fast,
As we shout to one another, "We graduate, at last!"

Good morning yesterday.

You wake up and time has slipped away.

And suddenly it's hard to find,

The memories you've left behind,

Remember?

Do you remember the laughter

And the tears,

The shadows of misty

Yesteryears?

The good times and the bad you've seen,

And all the others in between,

Remember?

Do you remember the times of your life?

Each laugh for the joy and the sorrow,

Put them away in your mind.

For memories are times

That you borrow,

To spend

When you get to tomorrow.

Here comes the setting sun,

The seasons are passing one by one.

So gather moments while you may.

Collect the dreams you dream today,

Remember?
